“Simpson offers its employees several opportunities for growth and movement in the company. In this industry, there are always open doors for you to move through and into new positions. Because Simpson is located in several regions of the United States, it’s possible for a person to work in different parts of the country and experience the different market types that are in this line of work.

It’s great to work for a company that is so eager to help in its employee’s growth, both professionally and personally. The people are amazing and the experience you gain in this industry is outstanding.

Simpson is a company with a solid foundation. I look forward to my future with Simpson and can’t wait to see where the industry takes me.”

“There are many things that make Simpson Property Group a great place to work, and one that stands out to me the most is the support I receive on a daily basis. It takes a lot of time and energy to manage an apartment community. Without the tremendous support of the staff at the Corporate Office and my dedicated staff on site, we would not achieve the continued success that we have over the past 6 years.

I also really appreciate the people. The Executive Team at Simpson Property Group believes in and supports their employees and is dedicated to the development of each and every person. With the provision of excellent and comprehensive training, we all have the necessary tools to do our jobs effectively every day. This helps us continue to provide outstanding service to our residents, and also helps with the continued development of our careers.

Last but not least, all year we are treated to special events that take an enormous amount of planning by the Corporate Office Staff and truly reflect a company that appreciates the employees.”

“The best thing about working for Simpson Housing is the people. I enjoy working with everyone in this company, and especially appreciate the equal footing we all share. The founder, Harold Simpson, fostered equality between all levels of the company. He often complimented me on my ability to treat everyone with the same level of respect and courtesy, no matter if they were a service technician or vice president. He noticed these things and encouraged everyone to be aware of it too.

Because this company began as a family venture, a culture of caring and kindness has carried over from the early days and created a way of life between the employees. My own personal motto, “Do well by doing good”, fits well with that culture. I feel blessed to be working for such as company as this.”

“Simpson is one of the most respected property management companies in America, and has a reputation for being financially stable, reliable and successful! Having Core Values sets the foundation for how we approach each day, each other and our business. We are taught, “Challenges are not road blocks, but seen as opportunities”.

Simpson embraces philanthropy which allows us all to experience the value of giving and possibly changing the lives of others.

The passion and commitment to excellence is portrayed at all communities and deeply rooted in all of us.”
